The Office of Human Resources is a proud supporter of Edison State's dedication to student success. The HR team is here to provide you, our employees, with the information and resources you need so you too are able to focus on our students and their success. This website is designed to provide you "anytime-anywhere" access to current human resources information regarding employment opportunities, benefits, compensation schedules and HR procedures.

Please take some time to become familiar with the HR team and the services that are available to you. Most importantly, let us know if you have any questions or ideas that would help us serve you better.
