

DUDLEY GOODLETTE BIO

Dudley Goodlette served in the Florida House of Representatives from 1998 until 2006 representing Naples, Marco Island and Everglades City in Southwest Florida.

During eight years as a member of the Florida House of Representatives, Dudley served in many key leadership positions including four years as Chairman of the influential Rules Committee and Rules and Calendar Council. Dudley was instrumental in leading election reform initiatives following the 2000 Presidential election, statewide domestic security initiatives following the 9/11 attack on America in 2001, medical malpractice reform in 2003, and important legislative measures relating to education reform in the state university system and the implementation of the constitutionally mandated statewide universal pre-kindergarten program in 2005.

In addition to his public service Dudley has maintained extensive community involvement in Southwest Florida. Dudley has served as President of the Naples Area Chamber of Commerce, Chairman of the Collier County Economic Development Council, Chairman of the City of Naples Community Redevelopment Advisory Board, President of the Collier County Bar Association and on many other civic and community organizations. Dudley has received numerous awards for his community service, including Naples Daily News Citizen of the Year, Economic Development Council Volunteer of the Year and Junior Achievement of Southwest Florida Business Leadership Hall of Fame Laureate.

Dudley earned his undergraduate degree from Eastern Kentucky University and his law degree from the University of Florida College of Law. He is a founding shareholder in the law firm of Goodlette, Coleman and Johnson, P. A. in Naples and is a Florida Bar board certified real estate attorney.

Dudley joined The Moorings Park Institute, Incorporated Board of Directors in April 2007.

In March of 2009, Speaker Larry Cretul named Dudley as his Chief of Staff, a role he served in during Speaker Cretul's tenure.
