1	hearing about rhe religions, despite having learned about them but they still had new perspectives or comments	Nov 17, 2011 10:04 AM
2	learning about religions more in depth	Nov 17, 2011 10:03 AM
3	understanding more about religion.	Nov 17, 2011 10:02 AM
4	The Q & A part	Nov 17, 2011 9:56 AM
5	The speakers are very informative and full of very good information on the religions.	Nov 17, 2011 9:55 AM
6	I loved discovering academic perspectives on religions instead of followers with opinions.	Nov 17, 2011 9:53 AM
7	speakers were informing	Nov 17, 2011 9:51 AM
8	The speakers were diverse in their views and the dynamics were vastly interesting.	Nov 17, 2011 9:51 AM
9	Having a discussion between all of us	Nov 17, 2011 9:39 AM
10	I enjoyed each speaker's view upon their branch of religion	Nov 17, 2011 9:36 AM
11	Taught me many different viewpoints on religion, and covered things I've never thought of.	Nov 17, 2011 9:35 AM
12	Discussion	Nov 17, 2011 9:33 AM
13	It was open. I was eager to question and get answers. They were very informative.	Nov 17, 2011 9:32 AM
14	Encouraging that we can have an open, mostly-peaceful discussion about a sensitive topic. If only national politics worked like the college.	Nov 17, 2011 9:31 AM
15	The focus on documented knowledge to support new ideas	Nov 17, 2011 9:29 AM
16	Hearing three different perspectives from three different people	Nov 17, 2011 9:28 AM
17	The new information I learned	Nov 17, 2011 9:27 AM

and they answer most of the questions.

Q7. Please tell us what we could do to improve this event.

1	it's already an impressive event	Nov 17, 2011 10:04 AM
2	have people who practice different religions attend.	Nov 17, 2011 10:03 AM
3	Dr. Ehman	Nov 17, 2011 9:56 AM
4	Nothing really to improve but would love to see a presentation of religious leaders as well as religious scholars	Nov 17, 2011 9:53 AM
5	add another speaker	Nov 17, 2011 9:51 AM
6	Maybe a five minute break before the hour so those leaving for class do not disturb everyone with the mass exodus.	Nov 17, 2011 9:51 AM
7	nothing	Nov 17, 2011 9:39 AM
8	Have a couple other religions as well.	Nov 17, 2011 9:36 AM
9	more comfortable chairs.	Nov 17, 2011 9:35 AM
10	A/C and better chairs	Nov 17, 2011 9:33 AM
11	More comfortable chairs! (How about the Rush Auditorium)	Nov 17, 2011 9:31 AM
12	Nothing!	Nov 17, 2011 9:28 AM
13	More time I guess	Nov 17, 2011 9:27 AM
14	Great information	Nov 17, 2011 9:27 AM
15	Nothing, as someone not religious made me want to learn about hinduism/buddhism.	Nov 17, 2011 9:25 AM
16	No comments, just one please tell people and let them know where exactly this event was going to take place	Nov 17, 2011 9:11 AM

1	my opinion on this is that I thoroughly enjoyed it, but I like learning and hearing about other religions, even if I'm familiar with them in theory. Thank you.	Nov 17, 2011 10:04 AM
2	It was a very interesting presentation.	Nov 17, 2011 9:53 AM
3	I'm hungry. I wish there was better choice of snacks	Nov 17, 2011 9:51 AM
4	Well done!	Nov 17, 2011 9:51 AM
5	very interesting and cooler A/C	Nov 17, 2011 9:39 AM
6	Next time bring real scholars and practice a faith.	Nov 17, 2011 9:33 AM
7	This event seemed more civilized in comparison to the last forum in which students looked to stump and ridicule some of the religious leaders.	Nov 17, 2011 9:32 AM
8	Great job of mediating, Dr. Swanson. Next time we need to get you in a chair facing the panel-perhaps a little round table- just like Jim Lehrer	Nov 17, 2011 9:31 AM
9	The event seemed to spark great discussion and was well received by students.	Nov 17, 2011 9:29 AM
10	I've never been to church and I absolutely appreciated that it wasn't all about God. To know what came of religion, and what it is now today.	Nov 17, 2011 9:25 AM
11	I enjoyed it very much. I have never been to anything like this before.	Nov 17, 2011 9:23 AM
