

Focus Group: Student Satisfaction and Engagement

Focus group leader #1 will welcome the students, ask each to tell their name, describe the purpose of the session, and pose the questions to the group. At the end of the session, s/he will briefly summarize the main points and ask if anyone has anything they would like to add or amend.

Focus group leader #2 will ensure the recording technology is functioning and take notes.

Questions:

1. What attracted you to Edison State College? (Why did you choose Edison State College?)
2. Describe the ideal first-year experience course.
3. Tell us about your experience in SLS 1515 (Cornerstone Experience) course.
4. Which aspects of the SLS 1515 (Cornerstone Experience) course are you most satisfied with?
5. In what ways did the SLS 1515 (Cornerstone Experience) course help you achieve your academic or career goals?
6. Which aspects of the SLS 1515(Cornerstone Experience) course are you least satisfied with?
7. Describe the campus-based activities you participated in as a result of taking the SLS 1515 course.
8. Outside of attending classes, tell us about any college activities that you participated in this term.
9. Outside of attending classes, what type of campus-based activities would you be interested in participating in?
10. What is the most effective way for the college to encourage your participation in campus activities?