

catalog.edison.edu/content.php?catoid=4&navoid=253

SIS ImportEdison State College...Google MapsCanvas Community ...Tuition | Northcentr...How to Paint a Kitch...Watch Gold Rush: AL...Ethics Sp12 HPCanvas ADMINOnline Master

Edison Portal | Directory | Calendars | Newsletters | Give To Edison | Espanol | Contact

50

EDISON STATE COLLEGE

Quicklinks...

Search Edison...

Search

Edison State College 2011-2012 Catalog

GO

Mar 30, 2012

Catalog Search

Courses

Enter Keyword

GO

☒ Whole Word/Phrase

Advanced Search

Catalog Home

College Profile

Admissions, Registration, Financial Aid, Student Records, and Transfer of Credits

Programs of Study

Distance Learning with Edison Online

Official College Calendar 2011-2012

General Education Competencies

Course Information

International or Diversity Focus Courses

Course Descriptions

Student Services

Programs of Study

Print-Friendly Page

HELP

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE (BS)

The Bachelor's degree consists of 120 credit hours. The first 60 are general education courses and degree prerequisites. The additional 60 hours consist of courses specific to your major.

- Elementary Education, BS
- Middle Grades Language Arts, BS
- Middle Grades Mathematics Education, BS
- Middle Grades Science Education, BS
- Secondary Education Biology, BS
- Secondary Education Mathematics, BS

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN NURSING (BSN)

The Bachelor's degree consists of 120 credit hours. The first 60 are general education courses and degree prerequisites. The additional 60 hours consist of courses specific to your major.

- Nursing, BSN

BACHELOR OF APPLIED SCIENCE (BAS)

The Bachelor's degree consists of 120 credit hours. The first 60 are general education courses and degree prerequisites. The additional 60 hours consist of courses specific to your major.

- Cardiopulmonary Sciences, BAS
- Public Safety Administration, BAS
- Supervision and Management, BAS

ASSOCIATE IN ARTS (AA)

The Associate in Arts degree in Florida consists of 60 credit hours in two main parts: the general education core and bachelor's degree program prerequisites. The 36 credit hour general education core is outlined by the Florida