TEAS Testing Information

Please read the following information thoroughly in order to ensure proper registration:

1. The cost of the TEAS test is $114.00. Test payment is made online directly to ATI at the time of test registration.
2. Test time is 9 a.m. and duration is approximately 4 hours.
3. All testing fees are non-refundable, non-transferable, and the test may not be *rescheduled.
*For a documented emergency, an exception may be made once documentation is reviewed by ATI.
4. TEAS results are valid for two years for application to the FSW Nursing program.
5. A government-issued photo ID is required to test.
6. TEAS study materials may be purchased at the Florida SouthWestern State College Bookstore or through the ATI online store. Please click on the TEAS study material link for additional information.
7. The username and password that you will create through ATI will be used on exam day. Make sure you have it memorized. Without a username/password you will not be allowed to test.
8. Examinees applying to other institutions will be responsible for sending the institution a copy of their results by purchasing a "TEAS transcript" from the ATI website. If the institution you are applying to is not listed when purchasing a transcript, please contact your school to find out how they prefer to obtain the results. Students applying to FSW will not be required to purchase a transcript.
