

FLORIDA SOUTHWESTERN STATE COLLEGE

2022 TAX INFORMATION

Available after 1/31/23

Information on this tax form is to assist you in claiming an educational tax credit on your federal income tax return. The Taxpayer Relief Act of 1997 allows students (or taxpayers claiming students as dependents) to claim certain qualified tuition and fee payments as a Lifetime Learning Credit or the American Opportunity Credit.

IRS Tax Form 1098-T is generated for students who are U.S. residents, have provided a valid social security number, and have paid tuition during the calendar year. Box 1 will include the amount of qualified tuition related expense paid from all sources less any reimbursements or refunds during the calendar year. Per IRS regulations, the qualified tuition payments in Box 1 do not include payments for non-qualified educational expenses. Box 5 will include scholarships or grants processed by the College during the calendar year. The information on this tax form is furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

Details regarding the student financial information that is used to generate the 1098-T form can be found in your student portal under "Financial Aid & Student Services", then click "Pay Online" which will direct you to "Account Detail for Term". Make sure to select the appropriate terms matching the terms FSW reported.
