

FSW English for Academic Purposes Program

What is EAP?

English for Academic Purposes (EAP) is a series of courses to help students develop the Academic English skills needed for success in college courses. Students will receive direct instruction, participate in pair and group assignments, and utilize language learning technology to develop Academic English.

How many levels does EAP offer?

- There are five levels: 2-6.
- There are four classes for Levels 2, 3, 4, and 5:
  - Speech and Listening (3 Credits)
  - Grammar (3 Credits)
  - Reading (3 Credits)
  - Writing (3 Credits)
- There are three classes for Level 6
  - Speech and Listening (3 Credits)
  - Reading (3 Credits)
  - Writing/Grammar (6 Credits)

What steps are required to get started in EAP?

1. Apply to FSW

- Complete an admissions application online at www.FSW.edu/admissions
- Identify your student type and click on the tile that best describes you
- Click “Apply Online” to complete the admissions application
- Select “AA GENR” on the application
- Complete the application and pay the $30 application fee

2. Submit Your Transcripts

- Submit all high school/GED and college transcripts to FSW. Foreign transcripts must be evaluated and translated by a NACES approved agency.
- See a list of agencies at www.FSW.edu/admissions/transcripts

3. Take Your EAP Placement Test

- When you have received your FSW student identification number, make an appointment for EAP testing at www.FSW.edu/testing Lee Campus (Fort Myers) 239-432-5207
