

Virtual International Research Expo 2020

Wednesday, November 18th
12:00 pm—1:30 pm

Please join us for the following Honors student capstone project presentations:

AMETHYST TAYLOR: “Coping and Resilience During COVID-19:
Undergraduate College Students’ Lived Experiences”

PAMELA RAMON : “COVID-19 Mitigation Protocols and the Lee County Jail”

JOHN WINN : “America: From Isolationist to Superpower”

Guest Panelists Include

Professor Daniel Marulanda

Dr. Wendy Chase

The FSW International Research Expo is a joint effort by the Center for International Education and Team AASIPRE’s Office of Sponsored Programs that allows students and faculty to showcase their internationally focused research through poster presentations and discussions.

You’ll also hear about why you should consider getting involved with international research by learning about upcoming international travel opportunities to conduct research abroad.

Join via Zoom at: <https://fsw.zoom.us/j/82207241044?pwd=RTZYeUFzNS9UUU56MnAvQy91dThLZz09>

Passcode: 602599