

Conferences and Additional Training	Framework
Understanding the First Year Student This annual summer conference is open to faculty, staff and administrators. The content is similar to the module for teaching faculty, but presented as a full-day seminar and conducted by a nationally-known expert.	Critical Thinking Applied Learning Relevancy Success Strategies
Critical Thinking This annual summer conference is open to open to all faculty, staff and administrators. The content is similar to the module for teaching faculty, but presented as a two-day seminar and conducted by a nationally-known expert.	Critical Thinking
Communities of Practice Communities of Practice are open to participation by all faculty, staff, and administrators for SLS 1515 Cornerstone Experience, Critical Thinking, and FTIC Student Support.	Critical Thinking Applied Learning Relevancy Success Strategies
TLC Trainings Beginning in 2011-12, the QEP focus in a consideration in all scheduled TLC trainings.	Critical Thinking Applied Learning Relevancy Success Strategies
International Critical Thinking Conference A contingent of faculty and QEP administrators will attend this conference annually.	Critical Thinking
Annual Conference on the First-Year Experience A contingent of faculty and appropriate staff will attend this conference annually.	Critical Thinking Applied Learning Relevancy Success Strategies
National and Regional Conferences Other conferences such as the Institute on the First-Year Experience in Community College will be evaluated for attendance each year.	Critical Thinking Applied Learning Relevancy Success Strategies