HONORS COURSES

Below are a list of honors courses that are typically offered on each campus during fall and spring semesters. This list is intended to help you in planning your schedule each term based on your interests, needs, and the availability of related courses. You will need to consult the official course offerings sheet that is posted on the Honors Forum on Canvas and on the Honors Scholar Program website each semester to locate the days/times and CRN numbers for each course you would like to take.

CHARLOTTE

FALL	SPRING
MAC 1105: College Algebra	MAC 1140: Pre-Calculus Algebra
ENC 1101: Composition I	ENC 1102: Composition II--Essay
HUM 2020: Introduction to Humanities	LIT 2000: Introduction to Literature

COLLIER

FALL	SPRING
CRW 2001: Creative Writing	ENC 1102: Composition II--Essay
HUM 2020: Introduction to Humanities	PHI 2930: Philosophy in Film
PSY 2012: Introduction to Psychology

THOMAS EDISON

FALL	SPRING
AMH 2010: History of U.S. to 1877	ART 2012: Media Explorations: This class is a co-requisite linked to HUM 2020
BSC1010 and BSC 1010L: Biology I and Biology I Lab	BSC1011 and BSC 1011L: Biology II and Biology II Lab
ECO 2013: Principles of Macroeconomics	ECO 2023: Principles of Microeconomics
ENC 1102: Essay	ENC 1102: Essay
HUM 2930: Great Human Questions	HUM 2020: Introduction to Humanities: This course is a co-requisite linked to ART 2012
INR 2500: Model United Nations (this is a year-long course)	INR 2500
LIT 2000: Introduction to Literature	THE 2100: Theater History and Literature
POS 2910: Political Science Seminar: Terrorism	ISS 2910: People, Politics & Power: Living in a Developing World. (This course includes a study abroad experience in Nicaragua).
PSY 2012: Introduction to Psychology	PSY 2012: Introduction to Psychology
SLS 1515: Cornerstone Experience	MUH 2018: History of Jazz
WHO 1023: History of World Civilization 1500-1815	WHO 1030: History of World Civilization: 1815-present
	STA 2023: Statistical Methods I

ONLINE

| BOTH FALL AND SPRING | PHI 2600:Ethics |