

The Honors Scholar Program

Presents the Spring 2017

Thesis Presentations

We are delighted to invite you to our annual presentation of honors research projects. This year's event will feature five thesis presentations, a presentation by students who took a study abroad trip to Nicaragua as part of Dr. Baltodano's Comparative Politics course, and the awarding of Honors Scholar certificates and cords. A reception will follow in the gallery space outside of the auditorium where an art exhibition featuring work produced by students in Prof. Roes' Media Explorations course will be on display.
