SYG 1010: Contemporary Social Problems in Germany

3 credits - Social Science Class

Dr. Phillip Wiseley (FSW Lee Campus or Live Flex)

FLORIDA
SOUTHWESTERN
STATE COLLEGE
CENTER FOR INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION

This course is designed so you can see, experience, and learn first-hand about German society and the influence it has had on the world. This course will provide common learning experiences that everyone will do; as well as the opportunity for you to learn and experience those things that are of interest to you. We will do things in both large and small groups as part of this experience together. A social problem is simply a problem that impacts many people within a society. If you can think of a problem faced by at least 'some' people you have a social problem. The study of social problems seeks to understand the problem and the solution embraced to address that problem. Being in Germany will allow us to learn about the history and culture of Germany while we explore this visually beautiful country with its majestic mountains and pristine lakes.
