LIT 2000: Introduction to Literature - Italian Love Poetry in Florence

3 credits - Humanities Core Class/Writing Intensive
Dr. Brandi George (FSW Lee Campus or Live Flex)

In this course, students will study Italian love poetry from Ovid through the late Renaissance. The course will begin with Ovid's Amores and then we will focus on Italian Renaissance poets, including Guido Cavalcanti, Dante Alighieri, Francesco Petrarca, Michelangelo Buonarroti, Vittoria Colonna, and Gaspara Stampa (many of whom lived and worked in Florence). Our study of Italian love poetry will include visits to important cultural and artistic sites, including the Duomo, the Uffizi, Palazzo Vecchio, and the Boboli Gardens. In addition to analyzing these literary works, students will also create their own love poetry at inspiring historic locations in Florence.
