Embark on a transformative journey through the musical landscapes of Scotland and England with our immersive study abroad program. This unique experience blends music appreciation with cultural exploration, offering students the chance to engage with diverse musical traditions firsthand. From the rich folk music of Scotland to the vibrant English orchestral and rock music scene, students will gain a deep understanding of how music reflects and shapes cultures. Through site visits, workshops, and live performances, participants will develop a lifelong appreciation for global music while enhancing their skills as independent listeners and critical thinkers.
