

Study Abroad with FSW: Literature of Spain

■ LIT 2000: Introduction to Literature with Professor Amanda Lehrian

Students are provided a brief historical background to contextualize Spanish authors and literature. Travel will explore authors' homes, haunts, educational institutions and inspirations. Historical sites, museums, and other cultural highlights enhance the literary focus and the interdisciplinary influences.

2020
SUMMER SESSION:

Course Dates: Summer May 4 - August 3
Travel Dates: July 9 - July 26

ESTIMATED STUDENT COST:

$1,150*

*Excludes FSW tuition. Financial aid may be used. Please contact the Financial Aid Office.

COST INCLUDES:

- Airfare
- Accommodations
- Ground Transportation
- Some Meals

Contact the Center for International Education for program information.

Email International.Education@fsw.edu or visit Building K, Room 240 on the Thomas Edison (Lee) Campus