Organization and Governance of College

Welcome

You Are Who We Are

It is with the goal of maintaining excellence in our programs that we welcome you with our Full-Time /Adjunct Faculty Handbook. Through this handbook, valuable information and resources are provided to you in an effort to ensure consistency and efficacy throughout our programs. Much of the information is offered through hyperlinks to the FSW Portal and other important web pages. Accessing this handbook online will offer easy access to additional information through the hyperlinks which ensures that information is current. New information and changes are communicated via emails, in department and school meetings, and from the Office of Provost. Your dedication to teaching, scholarship, and service is a significant contribution to Florida SouthWestern State College.

Accreditation

Florida SouthWestern State College (FSW) as an institution is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) to award associate and baccalaureate degrees. SACS is one of seven active regional accreditation agencies recognized by the U.S. Department of Education to receive Title IV funds (federal financial aid). Regional accreditation is a voluntary, peer reviewed, and self-regulatory process in which each agency examines if each member has established and maintained quality standards. Regional accreditation agencies also have authority over whether a member institution gains and/or maintains their status to offer educational programs. In its guiding accreditation document, Principles of Accreditation: Foundations for Quality Improvement, SACS Commission on Colleges states:

“Accreditation by SACS Commission on Colleges signifies that the institution (1) has a mission appropriate to higher education, (2) has resources, programs, and services sufficient to accomplish and sustain that mission, and (3) maintains clearly specified educational objectives that are consistent with its mission and appropriate to the degrees it offers, and that indicate whether it is successful in achieving its stated objectives (p. 1).”

In addition to regional accreditation by SACS Commission on Colleges, a number of FSW’s academic programs have agency accreditation or approvals. As listed on FSW’s accreditation information website:

Academic Freedom

As stated in the Collective Negotiations Agreement, 6.1: <https://www.fsw.edu/board/>

Academic Honesty and Plagiarism

In meeting one of the major objectives of higher education, which is to develop self-reliance, it is expected that students will be responsible for the completion of their own academic work.

Florida SouthWestern State College recognizes that adherence to high principles of academic integrity is vital to the academic function of the College. Therefore, the entire academic community shares the responsibility for establishing and maintaining standards of academic integrity. Those in charge of academic tasks have an obligation to make known the standards and expectations of acceptable academic conduct. Each student has an obligation to know and understand those standards and expectations. While the academic community recognizes that the responsibility for learning and personal conduct is an individual matter, all students and faculty members are expected to help maintain academic integrity at the College by refusing to participate in, or tolerate, any dishonesty.

The full FSW Academic Integrity Policy may be found in the official college catalog under Academic and Academic Policies on the following link:

Attendance Verification Process

All faculty are required to submit attendance verification for all class sections they are teaching every semester. The Attendance Verification process is for Financial Aid purposes. When attendance verification is not completed for a student, he or she will have a hold placed on his or her record and will not receive financial aid until the process is complete.

Some tips:

- You may need to verify attendance for some students beyond the attendance verification date. There are times when students are dropped daily for non-payment and may re-register for your course more than once. Each time a student is dropped, the re-registration is added as a new registration to your roster. Therefore, some students may have been re-added to your classes after you have completed attendance verification and will need the process completed again.
- Verify attendance for every student. If a student has not attended your class but you think he or she will, please report the student as not attending and then return to the attendance verification worksheet and report the student as attending if the student does finally attend your class on the last day of verification.
- The grading status column will show “not started”, as this refers to grade entry. This will update at the end of the term when grades have been entered and subsequently rolled to the students’ academic history.
- If you are having difficulty, please be sure to review the linked documents above before contacting your academic Dean or department chair for assistance as needed.

Faculty Responsibilities

The most current Collective Negotiations Agreement, article 8, details the primary responsibilities of a teaching faculty member. <https://www.fsw.edu/board/>

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. § 1232g; 34 CFR Part 99) is a Federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. The law applies to all schools that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education. FERPA gives parents certain rights with respect to their children's education records. These rights transfer to the student when he or she reaches the age of 18 or attends a school beyond the high school level. Students to whom the rights have transferred are "eligible students."

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act

The law was designed to protect the privacy of students' educational records and establish the rights of students to inspect and review their educational records. FERPA also was established to provide the student a measure of control over the release of educational record information.

Student Engagement and College Service Opportunities for Faculty

Student Engagement and Campus Activities:

Student Engagement is an important facet of the Florida SouthWestern State College experience. In keeping with this philosophy, Student Engagement sponsors a variety of academic, cultural, social, and developmental activities and events at Florida SouthWestern State College. These activities are designed to provide a more enjoyable and multifaceted campus experience. To find more information on student activities and programs, see Florida

SouthWestern State College's online events calendar or contact the Student Engagement office on your campus, or via email at: engage@fsw.edu. Current Registered Student Organizations are listed at the following link <https://fsw.presence.io>

Faculty Student Organization Advisors:

As stated in the Student Club Handbook, the role of an advisor is important to the direction and success of the club/organization. FSW requires that every registered student organization have a faculty or staff Advisor. Primarily, the advisor serves as a resource person for the organization. Advisors counsel and advise students by acting as a facilitator and guide. They assist students through their thinking process and challenge them to go beyond the status quo. Advisors also provide continuity for an organization by passing along valuable information regarding the organization's history, traditions, and past accomplishments. An active advisor improves the effectiveness of their respective organization while assisting in the positive development of its student members. For more detailed information from the handbook please contact Student Engagement at the following link: <https://www.fsw.edu/studentengagement>

Student of Concern

Documenting your concerns to others with the appropriate department can help you determine how to respond (for example, by referring a student for counseling, BIRT/Bucs CARE, Early Alert, Academic Misconduct Report, informing the Dean of Students or consulting with FSW Police Department), and provide additional context for the situation. You can access the BIRT/Bucs CARE, Early Alert, Academic Misconduct Report, FSW Police, and Counseling Services information at <https://www.fsw.edu/studentofconcern>. Please also visit www.fsw.edu/bucscare for additional information including the college-wide Food Pantry for students in need.

Student Surveys

The Office of Academic Assessment is involved in administering a number of surveys throughout FSW. Some surveys are college-wide while others are only select courses. Below are descriptions of some of the major surveys conducted at FSW through the Office of Academic Assessment. In addition to the below highlighted surveys, the Office of Academic Assessment also assists departments in surveys specific to their field.

The Student Opinion Survey (SOS) is a digitally-based student survey conducted college-wide each fall term (and spring, for certain departments). The survey provides an opportunity for students to provide feedback on the course(s) in which they are enrolled as well as some self-report items about themselves and their progress in the course. To access Student Opinion Surveys, log into your Portal Account, click on the College Resources and click on the Student Opinion Survey link under the Office of Academic Affairs.

Syllabus

The course syllabus is a teaching and learning contract instrument that is well-designed and defines the student learning outcomes for the course organized as a partnership between the instructor and the student. As in any partnership, rules need to be clearly defined and the responsibilities of each party articulated. Students must know how they will master each of the learning objectives. To access a copy of the specified syllabus for your course, log into your Portal Account, select Document Manager, VP Academic Affairs, (academic year) Syllabi.

Testing Services

The Florida SouthWestern State College Testing Centers provide testing services at each of the four FSW locations: Charlotte, Collier, Hendry/Glades, and Thomas Edison (Lee). Information concerning available tests, testing center locations, and hours of operations are available by visiting: <https://www.fsw.edu/testing>.

Ground Course Make-up Exams and Adaptive Services Testing are two areas for which faculty often request test proctoring assistance. In order to streamline the process, a Ground Course Make-up/Adaptive Services Exam Submission Form is available in the FSW Portal. The link to the form is permanently located in the Faculty Academics section of the Portal under Faculty Resources. Faculty Evaluation

FSW Faculty Evaluation

The primary purpose of faculty evaluation at Florida SouthWestern State College is to promote individual and institutional continuous-improvement. The College recognizes the need for a consistent system for evaluating its faculty. However, the College also acknowledges the diversity among its faculty and has, therefore, adopted a system of evaluation that values that diversity, recognizes that progress may occur in many directions, and asserts that many types of activities make valuable contributions to the College's success and growth. Hence, the underlying philosophy of this Faculty Evaluation Plan (FEP) is that evaluation of faculty performance is a complex process that should promote equity and consistency for all individuals. The FEP is designed to enhance faculty development, while also promoting the mission of Florida SouthWestern State College and its need for continuous improvement. The faculty evaluation process is intended to encourage and support professional development, promote personal reflection and self-assessment, planning and establishing goals, and experimentation on the part of each faculty member. It also provides a positive environment and collegial context for review of teaching purposes, strategies, and materials.

During the Spring Semester of each academic year each full-time faculty will complete the Faculty Self-Assessment and Goals form and deliver it to the appropriate Academic Dean/Supervising Administrator according to the timeline in the contract. All full-time annual faculty and continuing contract faculty undergoing review are evaluated on three components of their performance to which flexible area weights are assigned. Every five years, all faculty are required to complete a portfolio evaluation.
