

February 2nd-3rd

Keynote: Dr. Julie Edmunds

Program Director for Secondary School Reform at SERVE Center at UNCG, conducts research on issues primarily related to high school reform. She has received over $8.8 million in research and evaluation funding. Dr. Edmunds has been Principal Investigator for two Institute of Education Sciences-funded grants that use an experimental design to investigate the impact of the Early College High School model on student outcomes.

Confirmed Speakers:

Aaron Heinrich & Jose Mallabo, Founders of C'reer App

Dr. Jerry Israel, Author and former college President

In addition to nationally recognized speakers, conference participants can expect relevant and stimulating breakout discussion sessions with recognized experts, successful peers, and interested parties in both informal and moderated forums. Specific topics will be developed as registrant's indicate interest related to:

- The early college model (both in Florida and nationally).
- Creating and sustaining authentic college readiness through transformational teaching.
- Advising and counseling students through the highly competitive college admissions process.

75.00 registration fee includes access to all conference sessions, hors d'Oeuvres and evening meal on Thursday as well as breakfast and lunch on Friday. A list of local accommodations available on request.

When registration becomes live, a link will appear here to allow credit card transactions.

If you would like to reserve a spot and receive an email invitation to register early, please contact

Amanda.Sterk@fsw.edu